WEEKLY REPUBLICAN—1907.
DAILY PUBLIC LEDGER—1898.

MAYSVILLE, KY., THURSDAY, APRIL 20, 1905.

ONE COPY—ONE CENT.

THE PAPERHANGERS.

There is paste upon the piano,
There are scraps upon the floor,
There are footprints on the mantel,
There are scars upon the door;
There are books piled in the hallway,
There are pictures on the stairs,
There are clothes piled in the pantry
And confusion everywhere.
We are living in the parlor,
Where we breakfast, dine and sup,
For we've got the paperhangers
And We're
All Torn
Up.

All the beds are standing crosswise,
And the chairs are huddled round;
Dressers, trunks and center tables
Strewed till nothing can be found.
Strung promiscuously about—
Can't get out if once you're in there,
Can't get in if once you're out.
Father comes home out of humor,
Frowns and sometimes kicks the pup,
When we've got the paperhangers
And
We're
All Balled
Up.

—Frank Williams, New Brunswick, N. J.

lower limbs considerably.

Those wallpaper poets are not so bad after all. In another column appears a lay that is worthy of a perusal, especially, during spring cleaning time. Mr. Charles Fisk ran across it while in the act of hanging it on the wall of a room he was papering, the effusion being written on the reverse side.

In another column will be found the announcement of James Outten as a candidate for City Clerk. He is a young man of worth and integrity; honest, industrious and zealous, courteous in demeanor and obliging to a fault. He is popular and has a large following. If elected he will serve to the best of his ability.

The amusement hall at Streetcar Park is assuming shape, the Merry-go-Round is being put up, and with the "cleaning up" of the ground, the erection of a rustic bridge across the pretty little stream, shaded by the "grand old monarchs of the primeval forest," this will be one of the city's most delightful resorts.

Some enterprising gentleman with a small capital and an inclination to work can establish a lucrative business in this city during the summer by putting in operation a sprinkling cart. Who will be the first to seize the golden opportunity?

Tuesday night as Jacob Dinger and Cleveland Smart were crossing Second Street Extension they discovered a blaze on the C. and
O. viaduct, caused by a live coal from the ash-box of a passing train. The young men hastened to the spot and extinguished the fire.

OWENS—NEAL.

Mr. W. R. Owens, aged 50 years, of Murphys-ville, and Miss Katie Neal, aged 27 years, were married yesterday afternoon at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wat Neal, in the West End, Rev. R. E. Moss, officiating.

BUCKNER—RHODES.

Mr. Thomas Buckner of Mt. Olivet and Miss Mary Rhodes of the county were married at the home of the bride yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

A reception was held at the home of the groom in Sardis last night.

Miss Lizzie Wright of East Fourth street attended the nuptials.

WOODWARD—VANARSDALL.

The home of Mr. Isaac Vanarsdall near Flemingsburg was the scene of a very pretty wedding, which occurred last afternoon about 5:30, when his daughter, Miss Elizabeth, was united in marriage to Circuit Clerk Isaac Woodward of this city by Rev. W. S. Irvin in the presence of a few of their most intimate friends.

Following the nuptial vow and the receiving of congratulations, the party was directed to the dining-room, where an elegantly prepared supper was served, after which the happy couple was driven to this city and boarded the 10:42 C. and O. Fast Flyer for Washington
City and other Eastern points.

After a bridal tour of ten days, Mr. and Mrs. Woodward will occupy elegantly furnished rooms at the St. Charles Hotel until arrangements can be had for going to housekeeping.

The bride and groom represent two of Mason and Fleming counties' most prominent and influential families. The bride possesses many rare talents and accomplishments, which are attested by the County and State Board of Education. She is a pleasing conversationalist and a woman of charming attainments and practical knowledge, and will be a source of sunshine to the one she has so wisely chosen for a life partner.

The groom, "Cousin Ike" as he is familiarly called in Court circles, belongs to that old-fashioned type of Kentucky manhood, having a strong regard for true friendship and possessed of strong personalities. His friendship is of the right sort, true and everlasting, and is not changed by the "rocky gorges" of the river of adversity, but is boundless as the "unfathomable ocean." Having filled the office of Circuit Court Clerk for the past twelve years is an evidence of all that has been said about him.

"Ike" has apparently been very reticent in his courtship, and his marriage is somewhat of a surprise to many of his friends, who verily believed that he was invulnerable against Cupid's arrow. But as the unexpected will always happen, the next in order will be a grand old-fashioned serenade.

Mr. and Mrs. Woodward were recipients of many handsome and useful presents.

Among those from a distance who attended the nuptials were Misses Hannah McKinney, Paintsville; Hattie Mae Bond and Jessie Yancey of this city, and Messrs. Joe D. Grainger, Cincinnati, John S. Elliott, Germantown, and T. D.
Slattery, W. P. Dickson and Bernard B. Pollitt of this city.

So what is a fellow to do?

Stop Belching

FIRST BOTTLE FREE.

The annoying habit of belching and those humiliating rumblings in the stomach are not the most serious things accompanying constipation. Kidney complaints, lung affections, heart troubles or any other functional weakness which results from constipation is worse. Don't take pills or castor oil; they will make you worse.

Mull's Grape Tonic cures constipation, not by physicling you, because it won't do that, but by strengthening the digestive organs, enabling them to get all the nutrition out of the food and to carry the refuse from the bowels in the proper manner instead of into the blood, which causes disease. It's the no cure, no pay treatment—the kind that is pleasant to take and a sure cure.

We want to give a bottle of Mull's Grape Tonic to you if you have never used it.

Send your name and Druggist's name to Mull's Grape Tonic Co., 217 Third Avenue, Rock Island, Ill., and receive an order on your Druggist for a free bottle. It is given you without any promise on your part to buy. Send today.

The $1 bottle contains nearly three times the $3 size. Sold at Druggists.

CAUTION—Do not accept Mull's Grape Tonic from your Druggist unless it has a date and number stamped with indelible ink on the label.

RUSSIAN JUSTICE

No Wonder All Civilized People Side With the Japanese

London Mail.

I heard of a young workman who had just come from prison. I found him in his house. At first he would not answer the door, for he was too cowed and broken and feared a fresh police messenger. The lad's face was cut right down from skull to jaw with one tremendous blow of a whip. His body was seared horribly. Gradually I won his confidence and he told me what had happened.

"You know that I am a mechanic," he said. "I took no part in the strike, but remained at home. On Monday night I went out to buy bread. The man who keeps the shop asked me five times as much as usual, and I told him it was sheer robbery. A policeman told me to go away. I paid for the bread and told the policeman that I was not afraid of him, for the police well knew me to be a quiet, respectable man.

"Then the policeman called a sergeant and arrested me. They bound my hands together and led me along, soldiers beating me as we passed. When we got to the station I tried to explain, but they threw me down and beat me very, very badly with a nagaiika (a leather whip with a piece of lead at the end.) They tore my cheek open and struck me all over the face and body, and said that I was a thief and scoundrel. Then they searched me and took everything away, even my handkerchief, and I was huddled into a cell about twelve feet by ten, where there were twenty-one other men. All the other prisoners had been beaten, too. I tried to stop the bleeding of my cuts by tearing my shirt and wrapping it around the wounds made by the whip.

"Next morning I told a warder that if he would take a message to my sister she would pay him well. My sister came and saw the Superintendent. He was very grave, and told her that because of what the sergeant had said I was to be sent for six months to prison. He advised her to see the sergeant, and she did and paid him ten rubles. Then the sergeant said it was all a mistake and I was released."

For a Weak Digestion.

No medicine can replace food, but Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will help you to digest your food. It is not the quantity of food taken that gives strength and vigor to the system, but the amount digested and assimilated. If troubled with a weak digestion don't fail to give these Tablets a trial. Thousands have been benefited by their use. They only cost a quarter. For sale by all Druggists.

Every indication points to a crowded house at Mrs. Reid's entertainment on next Tuesday evening. The advance sale of seats is one of the largest ever sold here, so get your seats reserved at once or you will be too late. This promises to be one of the most delightful entertainments ever given in Maysville. Many novel and interesting features will be introduced. They will be very "fetching." Come and see them. Hechinger & Co.'s new spring styles will be exhibited also. Don't fail to see them. Reserved seats at Ray's Drugstore.

MEDICAL ASPECTS OF ACUTE APPENDICITIS.

New York Medical Record.

Andrew MacFarland declares that the surgeon is apt to base his statements upon the severe forms of appendicitis which he meets, and does not include in his view the vast majority of cases which run a mild course, do not need operation, and recover perfectly. The object of the physician should be to ascertain the method of treatment which in general gives the best results for the class of cases which come under his care, and to modify such treatment in any individual case as the condition warrants. Under any circumstance, there will be some mortality rate, whether the treatment be medical or surgical. The writer gives statistics from various sources which are in favor of medical treatment. Personally, he has never had a case of acute appendicitis die, nor has one been operated upon in the acute stage. General statistics contradict the statement that appendicitis has become far more frequent and violent. The apparent increase is due to an improvement in diagnosis. Cases of acute appendicitis recover without operation in from 90 per cent. to 95 per cent. of cases, and relapses occur in not more than one-fourth of the cases.

The Redmen's Street Fair is now an assured fact.

Mr. A. W. Thompson sold last week to Mr. William Stevenson of Murphysville a nice 16-hand coach mare, and yesterday a fancy brown harness mare to Mr. T. P. Bell of Nepton.

CAUGHT WITH THE GOODS!

The C. and O. Violated One of Your Uncle Sam's Laws

The C. and O. Railway Company was sued in the United States Court at Covington yesterday by the Government for alleged violations of the "Safety Appliance Act" of Congress.

It is charged that in March last four different freight trains were hauled by the Company on lines between Ashland and Cincinnati without being provided with the required safety appliances for braking the cars.

A fine of $100 for each offense—making together $400—is asked of the Court by District Attorney Tinsley.

VERY CLOSE CALL

A Former Maysville Man's Narrow Escape at Flemingsburg

The Fleming Gazette says Mr. George W. Wilt, the veteran Miller, had a narrow escape while at work in the Flemingsburg Flour Mills one day last week.

His coat was caught in the machinery and he was thrown violently on the ground and stunned for a few minutes.

He has been working continuously in a flour mill for fifty years, and the accident he met with last week was one of the closest calls he ever had.

Mr. Wilt came to Maysville from Maryland nearly forty years ago, and for a long time was Miller for Roberts & Keefe at the old Limestone Mills.

His many friends here congratulate him on his fortunate escape.

Thousands of Women ARE MADE WELL AND STRONG

Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Rests Upon the Fact that It Really Does Make Sick Women Well

Thousands upon thousands of American women have been restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Their letters are on file in Mrs. Pinkham's office, and prove this statement to be a fact and not a mere boast.

Overshadowing indeed is the success of this great medicine, and compared with it all other medicines and treatment for women are experiments.

Why has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound accomplished its wide-spread results for good?

Why has it lived and thrived and done its glorious work for a quarter of a century?

Simply and surely because of its sterling worth. The reason no other medicine has even approached its success is plainly and positively because there is no other medicine in the world so good for women's ills.

The wonderful power of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound over the diseases of womanhood is not because it is a stimulant—not because it is a palliative, but simply because it is the most wonderful tonic and reconstructer ever discovered to act directly upon the uterine system, positively curing disease and displacements and restoring health and vigor.

Marvelous cures are reported from all parts of the country by women who have been cured, trained nurses who have witnessed cures, and physicians who have recognized the virtue in Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and are fair enough to give credit where it is due. If physicians dared to be frank and open, hundreds of them would acknowledge that they constantly prescribe Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in severe cases of female ills, as they know by experience that it will effect a cure.

Women who are troubled with painful or irregular menstruation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), leucorrhoea, falling, inflammation or ulceration of the uterus, ovarian troubles, that "bearing-down" feeling, dizziness, faintness, indigestion, nervous prostration, or the blues, should take immediate action to ward off the serious consequences and be restored to health and strength by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Anyway, write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for advice. It's free and always helpful.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy the Best and Most Popular.

"Mothers buy it for croupy children, railroad men buy it for severe coughs and elderly people buy it for the gripe," say Moore Bros., Eldon, Iowa. "We sell more of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy than any other kind. It seems to have taken the lead over several other good brands." There is no question but this medicine is the best that can be prepared for coughs and colds, whether it be a child or an adult that is afflicted. It always cures and cures quickly. Sold by all Druggists.

Mr. J. W. Alexander and sister of Ashland were in the city yesterday and while here contracted for a fine monument from Murray & Thomas.

About Rheumatism.

There are few diseases that inflict more torture than rheumatism, and there is probably no disease for which such a varied and useless lot of remedies have been suggested. To say that it can be cured is, therefore, a bold statement to make, but Chamberlain's Pain Balm, which enjoys an extensive sale, has met with great success in the treatment of this disease. One application of Pain Balm will relieve the pain, and hundreds of sufferers have testified to permanent cures by its use. Why suffer when Pain Balm affords such quick relief and costs but a trifle? For sale by all Druggists.

ONLY ONE.

The Record in Maysville is a Unique One.

If the reader has a "bad back" or any kidney ill and is looking for relief and cure, better depend on the only remedy endorsed by people you know. Doan's Kidney Pills relieve quickly—cure permanently. Maysville citizens testify to this. Here is a case of it:
Henry Bertram, shoemaker, of 27 East Third St., Maysville, Ky., says:

"I believe everybody in Maysville has read in the papers the testimony I gave in March, 1900, about Doan's Kidney Pills for I have been asked again and again by residents of this town if that statement were true. For the benefit of persons who may now be suffering from forms of kidney trouble I repeat my testimony. Before I got Doan's Kidney Pills at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore I had suffered for some time with backache and a tired feeling and heaving aching in and about the kidneys. Being a shoemaker I thought my trouble was caused by my work, for every time I took a cold it settled in my back, but Doan's Kidney Pills quickly rid me of the trouble, and never from that time to this have I had any cause to complain of my back or kidneys. Doan's Kidney Pills perform exactly what they promise, and to be honest with you, I will say that in my opinion there is no remedy for kidney disorders equal to Doan's Kidney Pills."
